

Getting to Work is Easy!

Tailored Consulting Services from Commute Seattle

Custom Travel Communications | $300

Encourage people to walk, bike, and ride with a customized eye-catching graphic. Communicate early and often, especially with new hires or new tenants. This service generally requires 2 hours of staff time.

Walk & Talk | $600

During this Walk & Talk Commute Seattle will lead group of 10 people or less around the neighborhood to get familiar with the nearby amenities and transportation assets. This small group setting is a great way to get to know one another and create a space for people to ask questions. This service generally requires 4 hours of staff time.

Virtual Engagement Event | $600

Are your employees at multiple worksites? Are there construction impacts in your neighborhood? Reach out to Commute Seattle to host a virtual event on Zoom. The event will include transportation information, nearby amenities based on your location, and an opportunity for people to ask Commute Seattle question directly. This service generally requires 4 hours of staff time.

On-Site Engagement Event | $900

Host a hands-on interactive event with free giveaways, trip planning assistance, and more. Our transportation partners will be invited to table, but their availability is not guaranteed. Check out our DocuSign Tower Case Study! This service generally requires 6 hours of staff time.

Facilities Consultation & Report | $450

Are you interested in electric charging for e-bikes or e-vehicles? Struggling with parking management? Our experts will visit your site to discuss improvements and develop a custom list of actions. This service generally requires 3 hours of staff time.

Heat Mapping & Data Analysis | $450

Understanding where people are commuting to and from is key to recruiting and retaining employees and tenants. Ask our team about the data we can provide to inform your strategies. This service generally requires 3 hours of staff time.

Relocation Services | CUSTOM

The disruption of moving offices or expanding your workforce is an opportunity to encourage people to try a new way to get to work. Contact our team to leverage employees' fresh start at their new work location. These services are custom and generally require about 100 hours of staff time.

Custom Contracts

Is there something you don't see here but are interested in? Our team is ready to help! Contact us to find the best solution for you.

Commute Seattle is a nonprofit that works to make it easy to reach Seattle for the 600,000 people who go to work or school here every day. We provide education, outreach, and consulting services to Seattle employers, property managers, and people who live or work in Seattle.

Our team is committed to offering affordable and accessible travel options. Our services are priced to cover our operational costs. Contact us to learn about sliding scale pricing.

CommuteSeattle.com | info@commuteseattle.com

